

September 22, 2011

PRESS RELEASE
ANNOUNCEMENT ADDENDUM
For Immediate Release

Lisa Hagens
Volunteer Marketing Director
Northland 300
952-380-8911
lisahagens11@msn.com

ANNOUNCEMENT ADDENDUM TO:
WORLD'S LARGEST TRUCK CONVOY COMING TO YOUR TOWN

Minneapolis, MN, September 16, 2011 – Young songstress and recording artist, Hayley Reardon will be appearing and performing at the World's Largest Truck Convoy for Special Olympics Minnesota on Friday, September 30, 6:30-7:30pm at the National Sports Center, 1700 – 105th Avenue NE, Blaine, MN 55449 (Schwan Event Center).

This is quite an honor as Hayley's song "Stand Together" relates to National Bullying Prevention Month. The performance is free to Truck Convoy participants and all athletes of Special Olympics Minnesota. The public is invited to attend for a small donation.

Special Olympics Minnesota provides year round sports training and competition for people with intellectual disabilities that contribute to life-long physical fitness, personal growth and achievements.

For additional information, visit www.northland300.org or www.specialolympicsminnesota.org or contact Kathy Karkula at 612-604-1272 or karkulak@somn.org.